Licensor shall use reasonable efforts to provide continuous service seven (7) days a week with an average of 98% up-time per month. The 2% down-time includes periodic unavailability due to maintenance of the server(s), the installation or testing of software, the loading of additional Licensed Materials as they become available, and downtime related to the failure of equipment or services outside the control of Licensor, including but not limited to public or private telecommunications services or internet nodes or facilities. Scheduled down-time will be performed at a time to minimize inconvenience to Licensee and its Authorized Users.

If the Licensed Materials fail to operate in conformance with the terms of this Agreement, Licensee shall immediately notify Licensor, and Licensor shall promptly use reasonable efforts to restore access to the Licensed Materials as soon as possible. In the event that Licensor fails to repair the nonconformity in a reasonable time, Licensor shall reimburse Licensee in an amount that the nonconformity is proportional to the total Fees owed by Licensee under this Agreement.

In no event shall the terms of such "click-through" licenses materially differ from the provisions of this Agreement. In the event of any conflict between the terms of such "click-through" licenses and this Agreement, the terms of this Agreement shall prevail.

SearchLight_SearchLight is CDL's database discovery tool that helps users select appropriate databases by permitting a single-query broadcast search over many databases. Licensors will cooperate with CDL to implement separate access path and search page for each ACM Digital Library resource.

If those designated representatives cannot resolve the dispute, the parties shall meet at a mutually agreeable location and describe the dispute and their respective proposals for resolution to responsible executives of the disputing parties, who shall act in good faith to resolve the dispute. If the dispute is not resolved within thirty (30) calendar days after such meeting, the dispute shall be submitted to binding arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration provision of this Agreement.

Arbitration. Any controversies or disputes arising out of or relating to this Agreement shall be resolved by binding arbitration in accordance with the then current Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association. #### Internet Protocol Addresses

The California Digital Library (CDL) creates and maintains persistent identifiers to link entries in catalogs to licensed resources. This is done so that when a DRL for a resource changes, we need only to update our persistent identifier (PID) and need not make changes in catalog records.

As part of the maintenance process, the CDL will periodically validate all Pills to assure that they still resolve to the correct URLs. This will be done no more than once per week, and will appear to your server as a normal HTTP access. However, because the process is automated, it is considered a 'robot' or 'spider', as opposed to human-initiated retrieval. If your site maintains a robots.txt entry indicating that it does not permit programmatic access to the site, the CDL assumes permission to run its validation tool for the PIDs that the CDL has assigned to the licensed content. No reconfiguration of your robots.txt file is needed; our tool can be configured to bypass the robots.txt file. Please contact the CDL's Technical Coordinator if you have any questions or concerns about this process: [Deleted]
