Section 5. Our Intellectual Property Rights.

(a) Licensee agrees IEEE is the owner of all right, title and interest in and to the Licensed Products and/or has the right to license portions of the Licensed Products, including all copyright and other intellectual property rights under United States and international laws. Any modifications to terms and conditions will be negotiated by the parties prior to any Renewal Term and shall be agreed to by both parties to be effective.

(b) Notwithstanding the terms of subparagraph (a), this Agreement may be terminated upon written notice as follows:

(i) Material Breach. Either party may terminate this Agreement in the event of a material breach by the other party that remains uncured thirty (30) days after the non-breaching party notifies in writing the breaching party of such breach. (iii) Insolvency. In the event that either party is unable to pay its liabilities when due, or makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors or initiates or is the subject of any bankruptcy proceeding, or any trustee or receiver is appointed for its business or property.

(iv) On Notice. At least thirty days prior to the expiration of the Initial Term or any successive Renewal Term and upon written notice to the other party, either party may terminate this Agreement effective at the end of the Initial Term or any successive Renewal Term.

(c) Licensee acknowledges IEEE's claim that any breach of Sections 4 and 5 will result in irreparable harm to IEEE, and that IEEE shall have the right to seek immediate injunctive relief in the event of such actual breach, in addition to any other legal remedies that may be available to IEEE, and without the need to post security or a bond.

(d) Without prejudice to any other rights and remedies IEEE may have, upon termination of this Agreement, IEEE shall terminate all online access to the Database by Licensee and its Authorized Users, and Licensee shall immediately cease all use of the Database and the Licensed Products. B. Access; Availability.

1. Without limiting any provision of this agreement, Licensee acknowledges that IEEE may retain third-party independent contractors, consultants, service providers and distributors (collectively, "Contractors"), to perform technology and distribution services for IEEE.
2. Access to the Licensed Products via the internet shall be provided by the Host Provider, which will provide technical support, customer service, server access, maintenance and related services with respect to the Licensed Products, as described in this Annex. IEEE reserves the right to engage the services of another

Host Provider or to become the Host Provider at any time upon notice to Licensee.

3. Access to the Licensed Products shall be controlled by IEEE and/or Host Provider through the use of IP addresses and/or passwords at the discretion of Licensee. Licensee shall be responsible for issuing and terminating passwords to its Authorized Users, verifying the status of Authorized Users, providing lists of valid IP addresses to IEEE, and updating such lists as changes are made. Licensee shall cooperate with IEEE in the implementation of additional security procedures reasonably requested by IEEE as may be developed.

 - (iii) if a simultaneous user session is interrupted or expires for any reason, the Authorized User must return to their internal page that contains the link to the Licensed Products to re-gain access to the Licensed Products; and
 - (iv) an Authorized User will not be able to gain access to links provided by CrossRef, a collaborative reference linking service, within an IEEE article.

For more information regarding Blind Log-In Script, please contact onlinesupport@ieee.org.

4. The Database has been developed and is maintained with reasonable professional care. IEEE and Host Provider shall use commercially reasonable efforts to provide 24-hour-a-day, seven-day-a-week continuous availability of the Database online, subject to periodic unavailability due to maintenance of the server(s), the installation or testing of software, the loading of journals as they become available, and downtime related to equipment or services outside the control of IEEE including public or private telecommunications services or internet nodes or facilities. If, due to causes within its reasonable control, IEEE is unable to provide Licensee with access to the Licensed Products for a period exceeding twenty-four (24) consecutive hours, IEEE agrees to apply credit towards Licensee's subsequent Renewal Term for each twenty-four (24) consecutive hours of downtime, at no additional cost to Licensee.
