

Amendment to Memorandum of Understanding between JMIR
Publications and UC, signed and dated March 1, 2024

Purpose

The purpose of this amendment is to extend the aforementioned Memorandum of Understanding, previously amended to expire December 31, 2025.

Extension of term

With the signing of this amendment, the end date of this agreement is extended to December 31, 2026. JMIR commits to continuing the implementation of the agreement as described in the MOU; no changes shall be made to the author experience or the level of financial support that authors receive under this agreement. UC commits to the additional financial terms described below.

Financial terms for extension

UC and JMIR agree that all previous remaining funds from 2022 and 2023 have been utilized in 2024 and that there were no remaining funds from 2024 to apply to 2025.

UC and JMIR agree to a maximum UC library spend of $191,846 in 2026, to cover the library portions of articles submitted from January 1, 2026 through December 31, 2026. UC commits to using any remaining funds in the deposit account from the end of 2025, plus up to the maximum 2025 spend of $186,258. The 2025 financial terms will be reconciled and an invoice issued by JMIR no later than April 30, 2026. The invoice will be paid within 60 days of receipt.

The initial 2026 deposit will be $182,254 a prepayment of 95% of the maximum library obligation for 2026 and one single invoice for $182,254 will be issued as provided by this amendment, for the entire 2026 calendar year and, together with any remaining funds from 2025, will cover articles submitted from January 1, 2026 through December 31, 2026.

JMIR will issue a single invoice for the initial deposit in the first 30 days of the deal year to be paid by UC within 60 days of receipt.
