Accessibility: Clarivate represents and warrants that all products and services provided pursuant to this Agreement shall, to the fullest extent commercially practicable, comply with applicable Accessibility Standards. We commit to using commercially reasonable efforts to maintain and improve accessibility in accordance with evolving standards and legal requirements.

Accessibility Standards for the purposes of this section mean for web-based technology the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines, version 2.1 ("WCAG 2.1") at conformance level AA, and for non-web-based technology the accessibility requirements of Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended (29 U.S.C. 794d), and its implementing regulations set forth at Title 36, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 1194, as applicable.

If there are material gaps in the products' compliance with the Accessibility Standards, Customer shall provide written notice to Clarivate identifying the specific non-compliance. The parties shall engage in good faith discussions and shall cooperate to undertake a mutually agreed remediation to address the identified accessibility deficiencies.

Clarivate will, for products or offerings provided by third-party providers, use commercially reasonable efforts to request VPATs from such third-party providers. Clarivate makes no representation or warranty regarding the accessibility of third-party distributed products and shall not be responsible for any delay attributable to third-party actions or circumstances outside its reasonable control.
