LIBRARY EBOOK AGREEMENT

THIS LIBRARY EBOOK AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is by and between California Digital Library, ("Library") and NetLibrary, a division of OCLC Online Computer Library Center, Inc., an Ohio nonprofit corporation ("NetLibrary").

WHEREAS, NetLibrary has acquired certain rights to convert various books and other works to electronic format and to market and distribute the works as converted as eBooks, and NetLibrary operates an electronic library service for hosting and managing eBooks and other materials over the Internet.

WHEREAS, Library desires to purchase licenses to certain eBooks subject to the terms and conditions described in this Agreement, and Library, at its election, may either receive its eBooks on a securable medium or have NetLibrary host and manage Library's eBooks and provide certain other eBook Services to Library.

IN CONSIDERATION OF THE MUTUAL COVENANTS AND OBLIGATIONS SET FORTH BELOW, the parties agree as follows.

I. DEFINITIONS; EBOOK LICENSES

A. Definitions. Terms defined within this Agreement have the respective meanings attributed to them throughout this Agreement or in this Section I.A. Any defined term may be used in the singular and in the plural, as appropriate in the context.

1. "CSS Fee" means the Content Service and Support Fee, which is the fee Library pays NetLibrary to host and manage Library's eBooks, to maintain Library's NL Website, and to maintain and upgrade the Existing Platform and bandwidth. CSS Fees include eBook Services. Library may opt to pay the CSS Fees associated with any order of eBooks either as an "Annual CSS Fee" or as a "Prepaid CSS Fee," as further described in Exhibit B.
2. "Discount" means the percentage of the eBook List Price used in determining the eBook License Fee, as further described in Exhibit C.
3. "eBooks" mean NetLibrary's electronic copies of various books and other works in which NetLibrary has acquired certain rights.
4. The "eBook License Fee" means a one-time-only fee for Library's license to access and use the relevant eBook(s) content and is determined by subtracting the applicable Discount from the eBook List Price.
5. The "eBook List Price" means the price established by NetLibrary for the license to access and use the relevant eBook(s).
6. "eBook Services" mean NetLibrary's services related to Library's ongoing access to and use of eBooks via the Internet, as further described in Exhibit A.
7. The "Effective Date" of this Agreement means December 15, 2007.
8. "Library's NL Website" means the Website operated by NetLibrary and open to Library and Patrons in order to access and use eBooks licensed to Library.
9. A "MARC Record" means an electronic record containing metadata and other relevant information about the corresponding eBook.
10. "NL Website" means the Website operated by NetLibrary and open to the general public in order to provide information about NetLibrary's products and services.
11. "Patrons" mean Library's registered faculty, members, patrons, students, and other authorized users, including both onsite users and remote users. Patrons are individuals and may not be corporations or other entities.
12. "Branch" means the permitted Library branches under single administration of the Library, which the Library has authorized to access the eBook Services by giving NetLibrary written notice and Library will provide for NetLibrary any individual information needed to identify said Branch(es) and to provide them and their Patrons access. The Members of Library at the time this Agreement was executed are listed on Exhibit G.
13. The "Reinstatement Fee" means the fee associated with reinstating eBook Services for an eBook for which eBook Services were previously terminated, as further described in Exhibit B.

14. Subject to Section III.B below, the "Term" of this Agreement includes an "Initial Term," which commences on the Effective Date and continues in effect for five years, and any "Renewal Term(s)," which are automatic one year extensions of this Agreement that commence on each anniversary of the Effective Date unless this Agreement is terminated according to Section III.B.1 below.

B. eBook Licenses.

1. Purchase of Licenses.

a. eBooks. During the Term of the Agreement, Library may select and purchase eBook licenses from NetLibrary. Library agrees to select and purchase eBook licenses in accordance with NetLibrary's then current ordering practices. Each final order of eBook licenses is incorporated in this Agreement by reference.

b. MARC Records. As part of the relevant CSS Fee, NetLibrary will provide Library with one copy of the MARC Record that corresponds to each eBook license purchased by Library. NetLibrary may provide additional MARC Records to Library for mutually agreed upon fees and expenses. NetLibrary and Library agree that all MARC Records are the property of OCLC; Library may use MARC Records only for its own internal purposes as further described in Exhibit D. NetLibrary will replace defective MARC Records if Library notifies NetLibrary of the defect within 90 days of NetLibrary's delivery of the MARC Record and NetLibrary concurs that the MARC Record is defective.

2. Copyrighted Works. Library acknowledges and agrees that the copyright to each eBook is owned by or licensed to NetLibrary and the respective publisher thereof. All Rights Reserved. By purchasing a license to an eBook, Library obtains certain rights to access and use a copy of the eBook under this Agreement, but Library does not obtain or own any rights in the copyrights or any other intellectual property rights that may be associated with the eBook. Library agrees that it is responsible for all use of eBooks by Library and its Patrons, and that any use of eBooks by Library and its Patrons is governed by and will comply with applicable laws, including without limit U.S. copyright laws. Library acknowledges that it and its Patrons have no right to make copies of any eBook, or any portions thereof, except to the extent permitted by applicable copyright laws.

3. Delivery Option. At any time during the Term (see also Section III.B below), Library may elect to receive eBooks on DVD or another securable medium (each a "Secured eBook"), which does not support all of the features and functionality associated with eBooks accessible via the Internet and is not eligible for eBook Services (the election is the "Secured eBook Option"). The fees and charges for Secured eBooks include reimbursement for NetLibrary's reasonable costs associated with the DVD or other securable medium, the loading of eBooks onto the DVD or other securable medium, any software that accompanies Secured eBooks, and shipping and handling charges. Library may make the Secured eBook Option election by executing the Secured eBook Option Delivery Election Form attached to this Agreement as Exhibit E and returning the form to NetLibrary under Section III.I.13 below. Library must return the Secured eBook Option Delivery Election Form and any other required security documents before NetLibrary will deliver to Library one or more DVDs or other securable media containing one copy of each eBook that is licensed to Library under this Agreement and is requested by Library to be delivered as a Secured eBook. NetLibrary will deliver Secured eBooks within eight weeks of the date on which NetLibrary has received Library's executed Secured eBook Option Delivery Election Form and any other required security documents. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, if Library elects the Secured eBook Option, Library will not receive eBook Services as further described in Section II and Exhibit A below.

C. Branch Access.

1. eBooks Access. NetLibrary will only permit access to and use of eBooks purchased by Library by a Branch of Library and the Branch's Patrons if: (i) Library has executed a Library Agreement with NetLibrary, (ii) the Branch is listed in Exhibit G, and (iii) Library has given NetLibrary written notice that Library is willing to allow the Branch to access eBooks purchased by Library. Until all of these conditions have been satisfied, NetLibrary will have no obligation to permit any Branch of Library to access any eBooks purchased by Library.

2. Library may ask NetLibrary to add Branch(es) to or remove Branch(es) from Exhibit G by sending or e-mailing written notice to NetLibrary. At a minimum, the notice must include the following information:
  - a. Name of the Branch(es);
  - b. Whether the Library wants NetLibrary to add Branch(es) to or remove Branch(es) from the eBooks purchased by Library;
  - c. Contact Information for each Branch including Name, Address, Email, and phone;
  - d. IP Ranges and URLs for each Branch for authentication purposes;
  - e. A description of any and all relevant relationships between the Library, the Branch, and other Branches of the Library (e.g. Parent/Child, Peer to Peer, or Library); and
  - f. Other information reasonably required in order for NetLibrary to add Branch(es) to or remove Branch(es) from the eBooks purchased by Library.

Library can not submit this notice more often than once per month. NetLibrary will use commercially reasonable efforts to respond to the Library's request.

3. If a Branch wants to purchase eBook licenses from NetLibrary, then the Branch must execute a separate "Library eBook Agreement" by and between NetLibrary and the Branch.

II. EBOOK SERVICES

A. Applicability. The provisions of this Section II do not apply if Library has elected the Secured eBook Option offered in Section I.B.3..

B. Provision of eBook Services. During the Term, NetLibrary will establish, host, and administer Library's NL Website using NetLibrary's existing electronic bookshelf technology and NL Website. Library and Patrons will access Library's eBook collection through Library's NL Website, and Library will receive eBook Services for eBooks for which Library has purchased licenses and paid the applicable CSS Fee. Library and Patrons will access Library's eBook collection and eBook Services via Library's Internet connection, which will be Library's expense and responsibility.

C. Library and Patron Usage.

1. Limiting Access Measures. Library will be solely responsible for determining which Patrons will have access to Library's NL Website under this Agreement. Library agrees to implement appropriate measures to limit the use of eBooks through access by Patrons ("Limiting Access Measures"). Limiting Access Measures are to comply with NetLibrary's reasonable application requirements which may change from time to time and may include, but are not limited to, remote patron authentication applications, authentication through protected IP addresses, a patterned identification check and privileged user accounts. NetLibrary will consider other Limiting Access Measures on a case-by-case basis, but may reject the proposed methods if, in NetLibrary's opinion, access will not be sufficiently controlled. Library agrees to implement Limiting Access Measures within a reasonable time frame. NetLibrary, in its sole discretion, may discontinue Library's access to Library's NL Website if Library fails to implement Limiting Access Measures within a reasonable timeframe. Except for standard fees charged by Library to Patrons, Library will not charge any Patron for use of Library's NL Website.

2. Terms of Use.

a. The use of Library's NL Website by Library and Patrons will be governed by the "Terms of Use" currently available at <http://www.netlibrary.com/TermsOfUse.aspx>, as they may be amended from time to time. A copy of the currently available

Terms of Use is incorporated in this Agreement as Exhibit F. As between NetLibrary and Library, the terms of this Agreement will prevail over any inconsistent provision of the Terms of Use, and no change in the Terms of Use will be applied to materially adversely affect Library's rights under this Agreement.

b. If a Library or a Patron violates the Terms of Use, NetLibrary reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to suspend Library's or the Patron's access to and use of Library's NL Website. At its sole option, NetLibrary may notify Library of any violation by a Patron of the Terms of Use, and in the event, also at its sole option, NetLibrary may grant Library three business days to attempt to correct the violation by a Patron and NetLibrary will not suspend the Patron's access to and use of Library's NL Website if the violation is corrected within the three business day period. Library acknowledges and agrees that, in the case of repeated or persistent violations, NetLibrary may not provide the aforementioned notice and correction period to Library. Repeated or persistent violations of the Terms of Use by Library or Patrons may be cause for termination of this Agreement by NetLibrary.

3. Tools. Library will not use, implement or authorize use of any computerized or automated tool or application to search, index, test or otherwise obtain information from Library's NL Website, including without limit any "spidering" or web crawler application (collectively, "Tools"), without obtaining the prior written approval of NetLibrary. NetLibrary will not unreasonably withhold this approval, provided that the proposed use of Tools does not (i) present a risk of interfering with use of NL Website by Patrons or other NetLibrary end-users; (ii) degrade or impair the performance of NL Website; (iii) cause NetLibrary to violate its agreements with its other end-users, its publishers or other third parties; or (iv) constitute a violation of applicable law, including without limit U.S. copyright law. Library acknowledges and agrees that NetLibrary may from time to time implement controls on Library's NL Website to regulate or restrict the use of Tools.

III. GENERAL PROVISIONS

A. Applicability. The provisions of this Section III apply whether Library is receiving eBook Services or has made the Secured eBook Option election.

B. Termination.

1. Termination Without Cause. Either party may terminate this Agreement without cause effective upon the conclusion of the then current Initial Term or Renewal Term, as applicable, by providing the other party with at least 60 days prior written notice of its intent to do so.

2. Termination for Cause. Either party may terminate this Agreement for cause at any time by providing the other party with prior written notice of the occurrence of any of the following events:

- a. a party fails to timely pay any amounts due and payable, provided that the nonpayment is not cured within 10 days of the notice; or
- b. a party violates any material provision of this Agreement, including without limit a material failure to provide required services, a breach by Library or Patrons of copyrights laws, failure to comply with any security documents or a breach of the confidentiality provisions of this Agreement, or otherwise has committed breaches of this Agreement that, in the aggregate, are material, provided that the breach(es) cannot be, or is(are) not, cured within 60 days of the notice.

3. Termination of eBook License Purchases. If this Agreement is terminated as described in Article III.B.1., with respect to any eBook for which Library is receiving eBook Services and subject to the limitations set forth on Exhibit A, NetLibrary will continue to provide the eBook Services to Library unless and until Library elects to remove the eBook from Library's NL Website or to cease paying the CSS Fee associated with the eBook, even though this Agreement is terminated as to future purchases of other eBook licenses. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, if NetLibrary terminates this Agreement for cause under Article III.B.2., then NetLibrary's obligation to provide eBooks and eBook Services will expire.

4. Termination of eBook Services. Effective upon any anniversary of the Effective Date, Library may terminate this Agreement as it relates to eBook Services upon at least 60 days prior written notice of its intent to do so. In this event, Library may invoke the Secured eBook Option with respect to any eBook(s) licensed to Library under this Agreement by executing the Secured eBook Option Delivery Election Form attached to this Agreement as Exhibit E. (see also Section I.B.3 above).

a. If Library has paid Annual CSS Fees and desires to terminate eBook Services as described above, then no further fees related to the access of eBooks are due.

b. If Library has paid Prepaid CSS Fees and desires to terminate eBook Services as described above effective on the first, second, third or fourth anniversary of the Effective Date, then Library will be automatically converted to Annual CSS Fees and a settlement amount (the "Settlement") will be paid. The Settlement will be calculated as follows. The sum of Annual CSS Fees for all eBooks for the period of time for which eBook Services were provided to Library will be calculated and deducted from the amount of Prepaid CSS Fees for all eBooks that was paid to NetLibrary for the eBook Services that are being terminated. The Settlement will be paid within 30 days of the date of NetLibrary's invoice.

c. If Library has paid Prepaid CSS Fees, or has been automatically converted to Prepaid CSS Fees under Paragraph 1 of Exhibit B below, and desires to terminate eBook Services as described above effective on the fifth or a later anniversary of the Effective Date, then no further fees related to the access of eBooks are due to NetLibrary.

d. Library will reimburse NetLibrary for its reasonable costs associated with the medium on which Secured eBooks are loaded, the loading of Secured eBooks onto the medium, any software that accompanies Secured eBooks and shipping and handling charges, based upon the total number of Secured eBooks requested by Library.

5. Survival. All terms of this Agreement that are intended to survive termination for any reason of this Agreement will so survive, including without limit Section I, Paragraph B.2, Section II, Paragraph C and Section III, Paragraphs B.3, B.4, C, D, E, F, G, H, I.5 and I.13.

C. Limited Warranty. NetLibrary warrants that, as to any eBooks licensed to Library under this Agreement, NetLibrary has the necessary authority to license the eBooks to Library and, if applicable, to provide eBook Services to Library. If applicable, NetLibrary warrants that it will use its commercially reasonable efforts to provide eBook Services as described in this Agreement.

D. Warranty Disclaimer. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY PROVIDED IN SECTION III.C ABOVE, LIBRARY'S NL WEBSITE, EBOOK SERVICES, AND EBOOKS LICENSED UNDER THIS AGREEMENT ARE PROVIDED "AS IS" WITHOUT ANY WARRANTY OF ANY KIND AND NL AND ITS CONTENT PROVIDERS EXPRESSLY DISCLAIM ALL IMPLIED WARRANTIES, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMIT THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. NEITHER NL NOR ITS CONTENT PROVIDERS WARRANTS, GUARANTEES OR MAKES ANY REPRESENTATIONS REGARDING THE USE, OR THE RESULTS OF THE USE, OF LIBRARY'S NL WEBSITE OR EBOOKS. NO ORAL OR WRITTEN INFORMATION OR ADVICE GIVEN BY NL OR ITS EMPLOYEES WILL CREATE A REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY OR IN ANY WAY INCREASE THE SCOPE OF NL'S OBLIGATIONS, AND LIBRARY MAY NOT RELY ON ANY SUCH INFORMATION OR ADVICE.

E. Indemnity. [Deleted by Agreement of the Parties.]

F. Limitation on Liability. Neither party will claim special, incidental, indirect, or consequential damages; including without limit lost profits, for breach of this Agreement. This limitation will also apply to any claims brought against NetLibrary's content providers. Remedies are limited to claims for amounts due, for injunctive relief only as provided, or for direct damages. A party's aggregate liability for any and all claims, losses, liabilities, and demands arising, whether for breach of contract, in tort or otherwise, are limited to the total amount of eBook License Fees, CSS Fees and Reinstatement Fees (collectively, "Fees") paid by Library to NetLibrary, during the 12 month period immediately preceding the date on which the claim first arose. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the nonbreaching party may seek injunctive relief in any court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin or restrain the breaching party from continuing to do any act or commit any violation or threatened violation of this Agreement, and the prevailing party, if any, on a claim for injunctive relief is entitled to recover its reasonable attorney fees incurred in connection with that proceeding. Injunctive relief will be without prejudice to the nonbreaching party's right to also seek money damages for breach of this Agreement.

G. Confidential Information. To the extent allowed by applicable law, Library agrees that it will not use or disclose information relating to (i) the terms of this Agreement, (ii) the content of reports delivered under this Agreement, (iii) pricing terms and other business arrangements governed by this Agreement and (iv) any other documents provided by NetLibrary that have a confidential, proprietary or other similar designation or should reasonably be believed to be the confidential or proprietary information of NetLibrary or its content providers. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Library may disclose the aggregated content of reports delivered under Ex.A.2.c to other library professionals.

H. Payment Terms. All fees and charges are due and payable 30 days from the date of the related invoice. NetLibrary may deny Library and Patrons access to Library's NL Website until the unpaid invoice is paid in full.

I. Other Provisions.

1. Entire Agreement. All exhibits referred to in this Agreement are incorporated in this Agreement by reference. Any exhibit amended under Section III.1.2 below will also be incorporated in this Agreement by reference. This Agreement sets forth the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter of the Agreement, merges all discussions between them and supersedes and replaces any and every other prior or contemporaneous agreement, understanding or negotiation that may have existed between NetLibrary and Library to the extent that any such agreement relates to the subject matter of the Agreement. This Agreement governs all orders for eBooks and eBook Services placed by Library during the Term.

2. Modification or Amendment. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement, NetLibrary will have the right to modify and amend Exhibits B and C and the business terms referenced in these Exhibits provided that NetLibrary provides Library with at least 30 days prior written notice; in the event the modified or amended Exhibit B and/or Exhibit C will not be effective before the end of the 30 day notice period. Any other modification or amendment of this Agreement must be in writing and signed by a duly authorized representative of each party. For clarification, no term contained in a purchase order or other similar document submitted to NetLibrary by Library will become binding on the parties unless and until the term is mutually agreed upon in a written modification or amendment to this Agreement as described above.

3. Assignment. Neither party may sell, assign, transfer or convey this Agreement or any rights and obligations without the prior written consent of the other party, which will not be unreasonably withheld. Notwithstanding the foregoing, NetLibrary reserves the right to assign or transfer this Agreement to an affiliated company or to a third party that acquires substantially all of its assets upon written notice to the Library.

4. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties and their respective permitted successors and assigns.

5. Governing Law, Jurisdiction and Venue. This Agreement will be governed by the laws of the State of California, U.S.A. without regard to any conflict of laws provisions contained in this Agreement. NetLibrary and Library agree that any action arising from or out of the negotiations, execution, interpretation or enforcement of this Agreement may be brought in the state or federal courts located in the State of California, U.S.A. Library hereby consents to jurisdiction and venue in the state and federal courts in California, U.S.A.

6. Interpretation. The use of headings in this Agreement is solely for the mutual convenience of the parties and will not affect the construction.

7. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement proves to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement will not be affected thereby, and in lieu of any provision of this Agreement that is illegal, invalid or unenforceable, there will be added as a part of this Agreement a provision as similar in terms to the illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision as may be possible to be legal, valid and enforceable.

8. Further Assurances. Library and NetLibrary agree to take the further actions and to execute the further documents as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate this Agreement and the transactions contemplated in this Agreement.

9. Force Majeure. Library acknowledges that the Internet is an unsecure, unstable, unregulated, unorganized and unreliable environment, and that the ability of NetLibrary to deliver eBook Services may depend upon the Internet and equipment, software, systems, data and services provided by various telecommunications carriers, equipment manufacturers, firewall providers, encryption system developers and other vendors and third parties. Neither party will be liable for, or have the right to terminate this Agreement as a result of, any delays or failures to perform any of its obligations under the Agreement to the extent that the delays or failures are due to circumstances beyond its reasonable control, including without limit acts of God; strikes; riots; acts of war; power failures; and functions or malfunctions of the Internet, telecommunications services, firewalls, encryption systems, and security devices; or governmental regulations imposed after the Effective Date.

10. Waiver. The waiver by either party of any right granted under this Agreement will not be deemed a waiver of any other right granted under this Agreement, or a precedent for any subsequent waiver.

11. No Partnership. As to one another the parties are considered independent contractors. It is not the intention of the parties to create, nor will this Agreement be construed as creating, a partnership, joint venture, agency relationship, or other association; or render the parties liable as partners, co-venturers, agents, or principals.

12. No Third Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement is not intended to confer any benefit on any person or entity not a party to this Agreement.

13. Notices. Any notice, demand, request, consent, approval or other communication (collectively, "Notices") required or permitted to be given under this Agreement will be in writing and sent by hand delivery, special courier capable of confirming receipt, United States Mail (certified mail, return receipt requested), or facsimile or e-mail to a non-individual-specific e-mail address if receipt is confirmed. The parties acknowledge and agree that a Notice might not be deemed effective if receipt is not confirmed. Notices will be deemed given under the following rules: if hand delivered, at the time of delivery; if sent by special courier, on the third day after delivery to the courier; if mailed, on the seventh day after deposit in the United States Mail; and if sent by facsimile or e-mail to a non-individual-specific e-mail address, on the date transmitted if the sender receives confirmation that the transmission was received during the notified party's normal business hours, otherwise on the notified party's next normal business day. Notices will be sent to the following addresses:

15. Funding Contingency. The Library reasonably believes that funds can be obtained sufficient to pay all monies due during the term of this Agreement and hereby covenants that it will do all things lawfully within its power to obtain, maintain, and properly request and pursue funds from which payments for this transaction may be made, including making provisions for such payments to the extent necessary in each budget submitted for the purpose of obtaining funding, using its bona fide best efforts to have such portion of the budget approved and exhausting all available administrative review and appeals in the event such portion of the budget is not approved. EXHIBIT A TO LIBRARY EBOOK AGREEMENT
eBook Services

1. Support for NL Website and Library's NL Website.

a. Existing Platform. At the time this Agreement is executed, the NL Website and Library's NL Website are supported by NetLibrary's existing electronic bookshelf technology, which includes a third party operating system, third party database management software, and proprietary NetLibrary software (collectively, the "Existing Platform"). NetLibrary will not charge any fees to continue to support the operation of the Existing Platform, except as may be provided in this Agreement.

b. Platform Commitment Date. The "Platform Commitment Date" means a date determined for each purchase of eBook licenses. Initially, the Platform Commitment Date will be five years from the date of each applicable purchase of eBook licenses. However, NetLibrary may publish or announce a specific date as the Platform Commitment Date or a change in the practice of determining the Platform Commitment Date, provided that the publication or announcement will only be applicable to purchases of eBook licenses made after the date of the publication or announcement. Thereafter, at NetLibrary's discretion, the Platform Commitment Date for any purchase of eBook licenses may be as stated in the related documentation.

c. Migration. If the Existing Platform becomes technologically obsolete and/or third party vendors cease to support third party components of the Existing Platform before the Platform Commitment Date; then, except as may be provided in this Agreement, NetLibrary will not charge Library any additional fees to support the Existing Platform until the Platform Commitment Date or to migrate Library's eBook content to a replacement platform before the Platform Commitment Date. If the Existing Platform becomes technologically obsolete and/or third party vendors cease to support third party components of the Existing Platform after the Platform Commitment Date, then NetLibrary may charge fees to support a replacement platform or to migrate Library's eBooks to a replacement platform.

2. Specific eBook Services.

a. Accessing eBooks. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, NetLibrary will allow Library to access the eBooks that are available to NetLibrary under NetLibrary's agreements with publishers and other content providers in formats suitable for NetLibrary's electronic publication process and that are licensed to Library.

i. Hosting of eBooks. Absent other mutually agreeable arrangements, and except as provided below, NetLibrary will host each eBook licensed by Library on Library's NL Website for as long as Library elects to receive and pay for the corresponding eBook Services and NetLibrary continues to provide this Service.

ii. Removing eBooks. If Library chooses the Annual CSS Fee payment option, Library may elect to have any eBook removed from Library's NL Website, thereby suspending Library's obligation to pay the Annual CSS Fee for the eBook, by providing NetLibrary with written notice of the election within 60 days of the anniversary of the licensure of the eBook (or, if applicable, the reinstatement date for the eBook). CSS Fees for removed eBooks will cease on the anniversary date or the removal date, whichever date occurs first.

iii. Reinstating eBooks. Effective as of the first day of any month, Library may elect to reinstate any removed eBook by providing NetLibrary with at least 30 days prior written notice of the election and by paying the applicable Reinstatement Fee as further described in Exhibit B. CSS Fees for reinstated eBooks are due and payable on the reinstatement date.

b. Patron Access. Library will implement and maintain Limiting Access Measures, based on NetLibrary's standard systems, which will control Patrons' access to Library's NL Website.

c. Reports. CSS Fees entitle Library to the standard reports offered by NetLibrary. Nonstandard reports may be developed for a fee on a case-by-case basis.

EXHIBIT B TO LIBRARY EBOOK AGREEMENT
NL Website and CSS Fees

1. CSS Fee Payment Options. Unless Library elects to purchase eBooks via the Secured eBook Option, Library will choose one of the two CSS Fee payment options described below on each purchase order. If Library does not make an election on a purchase order, then Library will be deemed to have selected the Annual CSS Fee for the corresponding order. In addition, if Library selects or is deemed to have selected an Annual CSS Fee for an order of eBooks, Library may, at any time during the Term, elect to convert to the Prepaid CSS Fee for the order of eBooks. This election will be made by written notice to NetLibrary and payment of the Prepaid CSS Fee in an amount equal to 55% of the sum of each eBook List Price for all eBooks in the order at the time of initial licensing, less a credit equal to 80% of the sum of all Annual CSS Fees paid for the eBooks. If Library pays five Annual CSS Fees to NetLibrary for any eBook(s), then no further CSS Fees will be due to NetLibrary for such eBook(s) and Library will be automatically converted to Prepaid CSS Fee(s) for the eBooks, which will be deemed to have been paid in full.

a. Annual CSS Fee.

i. The Annual CSS Fee for an order will equal 15% of the sum of the eBook List Prices for all the eBooks in the order at the time of initial licensing.

ii. Upon payment of an Annual CSS Fee, NetLibrary will host and provide eBook Services for the effected eBooks for 1 year from the purchase date.

iii. The first payment of the Annual CSS Fee for an order will be due and payable at the time the Library purchases the eBook licenses, and will be included on the invoice for the corresponding eBook License Fees.

iv. Annual CSS Fees for the second and subsequent years for all orders will be calculated and invoiced in the month in which the anniversary of the order date occurs, or at NetLibrary's election, on an annualized basis on a single date each year for Library's entire eBook collection.

v. The Annual CSS Fee in the second and subsequent years will be reduced by the portion of the first year Annual CSS Fee attributable to any eBook removed from, and not reinstated to, Library's eBook collection as further described in this Exhibit.

vi. For the Annual CSS Fee option only, the Reinstatement Fee for an eBook will equal 15% of the eBook List Price.

vii. If NetLibrary elects not to continue to support the Existing Platform at any time due to technological obsolescence or cessation of third party vendor support, NetLibrary may charge Library (if Library selected the Annual CSS Fee option) additional fees for migrating the eBooks for which Library is paying the Annual CSS Fee to a replacement platform, subject to any applicable limitations as set out on Exhibit A.

b. Prepaid CSS Fee.

i. Library may prepay CSS Fees for an order by making a one-time-only nonrefundable payment equivalent to 55% of the sum of the eBook List Prices for all eBooks in the order at the time of initial licensing.

ii. Upon payment of the Prepaid CSS Fee, NetLibrary will host and provide eBook Services for the effected eBooks for the greater of: (a) five years from the purchase date or (b) for as long as NetLibrary continues to support the Existing Platform.

iii. If Library selects the Prepaid CSS Fee payment option and NetLibrary ceases to support the Existing Platform due to technological obsolescence or cessation of third party vendor support at any time before the Platform Commitment Date, NetLibrary will not charge Library any additional fees to migrate Library's licensed eBooks for which Library has paid the Prepaid CSS Fee to a replacement platform.

2. Delivery of eBook Services. Payment of the CSS Fee allows Library to access the eBooks licensed to it on Library's NL Website and receive eBook Services for such eBooks for so long as:

a. Library continues to pay, or has prepaid, as the case may be, such CSS Fee,

b. NetLibrary continues to support the Existing Platform as provided in Exhibit A and

c. Library has not removed the eBook from Library's NL Website.

EXHIBIT C TO LIBRARY EBOOK AGREEMENT
eBook License Fees and Discounts

1. Purchases Made Through a Partner of NetLibrary. The Discounts will be determined by a consortium, distributor or other partner of NetLibrary if Library purchases through the consortium, distributor or other partner of NetLibrary.
2. Purchases Made Through NetLibrary. At the time this Agreement is executed, NetLibrary's Discount structure applicable to each order of eBook License Fees placed directly with NetLibrary is calculated as follows:

Library's Purchases During the Preceding 12 Month Period in U.S.	Maximum Discount off eBook List Price

The structure provided above is subject to the following conditions:

- a. The Discount is based on one contract and one billing address.
- b. The Discount is a guideline and will vary by title.
- c. The Discount as applied to each specific purchase of eBook licenses is based on the aggregate amount of Library's purchases of eBook licenses during the preceding rolling 12 month period.

EXHIBIT D TO LIBRARY EBOOK AGREEMENT
Guidelines for the Use and Transfer of OCLC-Derived Records
Revision of November 16, 1987

I. GUIDELINES

(See Definitions in Part II below)

1. Each member and nonmember library may use records without restriction, and may transfer records of its own holdings without restriction to other libraries.
2. In addition to transfers to libraries, each member and nonmember library may transfer records of its own holdings without restriction, to (a) member networks, (b) state and multi-state library agencies and (c) all other noncommercial firms.

a. Member networks may produce and transfer to any member library, copies on magnetic tape of records used or inserted into the OCLC database by the library. Each member network also may process records of the holdings of any member or nonmember library which has employed and agreed to pay it for that service, provided the member network has first signed either an individual agreement with the library, or a general agreement with OCLC, containing measures agreed upon by OCLC and the member network for protection of the records it has been employed to process. Any other use and transfer of records by member networks will be as provided in separate understandings with OCLC.

b. The use and transfer of records by library systems or projects operated by or under the aegis of one or more state or national library agencies will be as provided in separate understandings with OCLC. Such understandings may include (i) arrangements to incorporate state or national bibliographic databases into the OCLC system, (ii) paid-up licenses to use records in state or national programs (e.g., by means of payments for OCLC multi-institution tapes) and/or (iii) any other understandings that will facilitate state or national programs as well as the maintenance and enhancement of the OCLC database.

c. The use and transfer of records by any other organizations to which transfers are made under this Guideline 2 will be as provided in separate understandings with OCLC.

3. In addition, each member and nonmember library may transfer records of its own holdings to commercial firms which the library has employed and agreed to pay to process such records, provided that each commercial firm has first signed an individual agreement with the library, or OCLC has advised the library that the commercial firm has signed a general agreement with OCLC, in either case containing measures agreed upon by OCLC and the commercial firm for protection of the records it has been employed to process. In addition, each member and nonmember library may make any other transfers of records to commercial firms, subject to prior written agreements with OCLC. However, there is no requirement for prior written agreements (a) for transfers made under Guideline 1 above to libraries operated by commercial firms or (b) for transfers to commercial firms by former OCLC member libraries of records of their holdings, so long as the libraries maintain no continuing user status with OCLC.

4. When a nonmember organization makes bibliographic information available to OCLC which is subject to usage or transfer restrictions imposed by such nonmember organization, and OCLC nevertheless elects to accept the information for addition to the OCLC database, OCLC will notify libraries to which it makes the information available, and rights to use and transfer records based on such information will be subject to the same restrictions.

5. When transfers under Guideline 1 above are made to machine-readable union catalogs accessible by nonmember libraries, it is requested that machine-readable copies of the records of such union catalogs be submitted to OCLC. OCLC, at its own expense, will have the right to add such records to its database for all uses consistent with its chartered purposes.

6. The Guidelines above apply to all uses and transfers of records except where a mutually acceptable agreement establishing broader or narrower rights is made with OCLC relating to a specific product or service.

II. DEFINITIONS

1. The term "member library" means a general member of OCLC as defined in its Code of Regulations.
2. The term "nonmember library" means any library other than a member library.

3. A "member network" is an OCLC-affiliated regional, state or multi-state library network organization which is in contract with OCLC to provide OCLC services and products, or to assist OCLC to provide such services and products, to general members of OCLC.

4. A "commercial firm" is any organization permitted, under applicable law, to operate on a for-profit basis.

5. The term "records" means bibliographic records and holdings data (including copies thereof) derived from the OCLC database, including derivative works made from such records, and either received in machine-readable form or converted by the transferee into machine-readable form. The term also includes such records when held only in eye-readable form, in the case of proposed transfers to commercial firms. However, records do not include, as to any member or nonmember library (a) bibliographic records designated in the OCLC database as original cataloging by such member or nonmember library and (b) bibliographic records derived by such member or nonmember library from sources other than the OCLC database and to copies of which in the OCLC database its holdings symbol has been attached by tape-loading. Such excluded records are freely transferable and are not dealt with in these Guidelines. OCLC-derived records held only in eye-readable form are freely transferable except to commercial firms.

6. The terms "transfer" and "transfer of records" refer to all sales, exchanges, gifts, sharing and other transfers, and all online access except online access provided to end-user patrons of a library in authorized possession of the records.
